Sunday's Game To Be Given At Local Ball Game

Full details of Sunday's world series game at Cleveland between the Cleveland Americans and the Brooklyn Nationals, will be given at the base ball game at the West Third street grounds between the Tail Lights and Homer tomorrow afternoon.

The game will be received play by play, as it is played, by the Daily Republican, and will be relayed to the grounds by telephone where it will be read to the crowd by Walter Hubbard of Johnson's drug store through the Magnavox, sound magnifier.

The Magnavox is being used to give the detailed play of each world series game from the balcony on the Johnson drug store building and every afternoon of a game a large crowd collects to hear how it happened. The score by innings is also posted as fast as it is received.

FREIGHT HITS FRONT END OF SCHOOL HACK

Clifford Ewbank Escapes Injury in Accident at Crossing Northeast
of Rushville

FRONT WHEEL IS MASHED

Clifford Ewbank, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ewbank, living northeast of Rushville, barely missed being seriously injured Friday afternoon about three o'clock when a fast Pennsylvania freight train hit the front end of the school hack he was driving at a crossing a short distance northeast of here.

The railroad angles northeast and southwest across the east and west road on which he was traveling. Young Ewbank, who drives a motor school hack for Rushville township, was going west to gather up the school children and return them to their homes. The view of the railroad from the northeast is obscured by a house and trees and the driver did not see the train until it was upon him.

The engine hit the right front wheel and shoved the hack to one side without doing any damage aside from crushing the wheel. The vehicle was not even upset.

CARAVAN TO MARION TO BE FORMED HERE

Robert Humes in Charge of Plans
For Pilgrimage to Sen. Harding's
Front Porch Oct. 18

APPEAL TO FIRST VOTERS

Joseph B. Rusk of Crawfordsville, a representative of the republican national committee, was here yesterday afternoon to make arrangements for an automobile delegation to Marion, Ohio, for the "America First" celebration on Monday, October 18. Robert Humes was appointed chairman to arrange for the Rush county caravan and persons who wish to get details regarding the proposed trip are urged to call him at telephone No. 2316.

It is estimated that Indiana alone will be represented by more than two thousand automobiles the day of the pilgrimage to Senator Harding's front porch. A special appeal is being made to first voters to attend because Senator Harding's address will be especially for them. Governor Coolidge, candidate for vice-president, will also be present and speak.

It is expected practically every county in eastern Indiana will send a delegation and early reports indicate that many western Indiana counties will also be represented. Cass, Allen, Kosciusko and Montgomery counties are among the more remote ones which will send an auto caravan.

ALVA JONES SENT TO STATE PRISON

One of Four Arraigned on Criminal
Charges Today Draws Term
of 2 to 21 Years

SENTENCED ON GUILTY PLEA

Martin Clevenger Pleads Not Guilty
To Three Gaming Charges—William Brady Denies Guilt

The first thirty minutes of circuit court this morning was given over to the arraignment of four men who are held on criminal charges, two of which are of a serious nature and three charges against one man in connection with an alleged gambling deal a week ago tonight.

Alva Jones who lives in West Tenth street, entered a plea of guilty to a serious charge, and was sentenced to the State Prison at Michigan City for a term of years from 2 to 21.

Martin Clevenger was arraigned on three charges, one of gaming, one for conducting a gaming house and the third of inducing minors to gamble. He entered a plea of not guilty to each charge and his bond in the sum of $200 in each case was furnished by W. S. Oneal.

Clevenger's trial on the charge of keeping a gaming house was set for next Wednesday. Judge Sparks will submit the names of five capable judges for the defendant to strike off two and the state two, which will leave the other one to hear the case. Judge Sparks will be a witness in the case which disqualifies him to act as judge.

John M. Johnson, who lives in Ripley township, was arraigned on a grand jury indictment charging him with petit larceny and obtaining goods under false pretenses. He pleaded not guilty and Charles F. Whitton went on his bond in the sum of $500.

William Brady who was placed in jail Tuesday night on a serious charge, entered a plea of not guilty, and went back to jail upon default of $1,000 bond.

Jones, the first man mentioned, has been held in jail for several weeks, following an investigation by officers and the returning of a grand jury indictment. He gave his age as 42 years, and the girl over whom the charge is preferred is said to be 13 years old, and lives in Circleville. She is also the convicted man's sister-in-law.

Judge Sparks, in passing sentence on Jones told him that he was charged with a serious crime, but the statute did not give the court any jurisdiction in the matter other than to pass the required sentence. The statute prohibits leniency in the cases of murder, kidnapping and rape.

WOMEN NEARLY EQUAL THE MEN

Complete Figures on Two Registrations Show 5,733 Females to 5,920 Male Voters Registered

TOTAL IS SLIGHTLY LESS

Estimated Duplication Due to Voters
Moving Will Average About
Ten to The Precinct

Figures on the first and second registration of voters which have been compiled show that almost as many women as men are qualified to vote in the election November 2.

The total went over eleven thousand, and as the first registration indicated it would, 5,920 men and 5,733 women being qualified for voting. At the first registration the total of both men and women was 8,228 and at the second the total was 3,185.

This, of course, does not take into account duplications due to voters moving from one precinct to another after the first registration and registering at the October session of the board in the precinct in which they now live. It is estimated that this will average about ten to the precinct, which would reduce the above total about three hundred.

The men excelled the women in the first registration, 4,532, of them qualifying for the ballot, while only 3,908 women registered. An extra effort was made by both parties between the first and second registrations to get a large female vote, with the result that 1,825 women were registered at the October session as compared with 1,388 men.

The men and women registering in each precinct in the county and the total for each precinct is as follows:

$12,000 LOSS FROM FIRE AT CARTHAGE

Johnson Business Block on Northeast Corner of Public Square
Burns Early Today

DISCOVERED AT 2:30 O'CLOCK

Maddy Grocery, Clark's 5 and 10
Cents Store, Doctor's Office and
Cream Station Destroyed

A fire swept through the business district of Carthage this morning about 2:30 o'clock, and before the blaze could be checked, $12,000 damage had resulted and two stores, an office and a cream station had been completely wiped out.

The grocery store owned by W. H. Maddy, Clark's Five and Ten Cents Store, the physician's office of Dr. W. C. Vandament and a cream receiving station, were all destroyed at a total loss, as well as the frame building, in which they were located. The building was owned by Albert and John Johnson.

The fire originated some place in the frame building containing the four stores, and was not discovered until the building was a mass of flames. The business block was located on the northeast corner of the public square, running north in Main street.

All that saved the remainder of the surrounding stores from burning was due to the fact that on all three remaining corners the buildings were of brick structure.

When first discovered about 2:30 this morning, the alarm was quickly spread and volunteers gave their assistance but the flames were so intense that they could not be subdued, and attention was paid to saving the surrounding buildings.

At the north end of the frame structure was a brick building, housing the department store of F. D. Yankner. The brick building kept this store from being seriously damaged, other than stock which was damaged from smoke and water. Mr. Yankner's loss will be covered by insurance.

Mr. Maddy's loss is also said to be one-half covered with insurance, as the grocery stock was a total loss. Clark's Five and Ten Cent store is said to have been fully recovered with insurance, as their loss was also total, as was the two offices of the cream station and Dr. Vandament.

The office of the physician was formerly the office of Dr. J. A. Sipe.

TARIFF ISSUE IS IMPORTANT

Little Attention is Paid so Far in The Campaign to The Foreign Trade Enterprise

CANADA INAUGURATES SYSTEM

Republicans Favor Protective Tariff While Democrats Are For Free Trade

Washington, Oct. 9.—Little attention seems to be paid so far in this political campaign to the tariff question. Every student of American history and economics knows that upon the tariff, one way or the other, depends in a great measure the prosperity of the United States and the welfare and happiness of the people.

It is a basic proposition, which cannot be disputed, that this country has proposed exceedingly under high or protective tariff systems, during republican administrations, and has correspondingly failed to propose with free trade or a "tariff for revenue only" under democratic administrations.

The democratic party is committed in this campaign to a low tariff policy. Its platform says: "We reaffirm the traditional policy of the democratic party in favor of a tariff for revenue only." Under democratic in stating his fourteen peace terms to Congress, demanded: "The removal, as far as possible, of all economic barriers and the establishment of an equality of trade conditions among all nations consenting to the peace and associating themselves for its maintenance." The President there declared, openly and without disguise, for a free trade policy—a kind of soviet world trade arrangement. It was a positive declaration by the President that the United States, in its treaty of peace must guarantee to Europe free trade with the United States without any tariff safeguards whatever to protect the American business man, manufacturer, farmer and laborer from foreign competition in home markets. No one can deny if the tariff bars are completely swept away, when peace is finally signed, that the European nations with their cheaper labor, will be able to completely dominate markets for many manufactured goods in the United States that are now supplied by American manufacturers. American products would be driven out of the home markets and American manufacturers put out of business, with unemployment to American labor following.

The American manufacturer, with the higher wages he pays to American labor than is paid in European countries, cannot compete with European products if the products are admitted duty free, as President Wilson wants them admitted, or with a small tariff for "revenue only". The same conditions would prevail concerning the competition of all other nations of the world, particularly Japan, because in Japan labor is the poorest paid in the world. So well do the people of the United States understand the tariff question that the republican party has never been defeated on a tariff issue when it presented that issue squarely to the electorate.

Free trade, absolute and complete, or a low tariff, with all its tremendous economic ills, looms for the next four years, if the democrats win in November.

The National republican platform says: "The republican party reaffirms its belief in the protective principle, and pledges itself to a revision of the tariff as soon as conditions shall make it necessary for the preservation of the home market for American labor, agriculture and industry."

The issue is clear cut between the two parties on this question. The voter must choose in November whether he wants prosperity in a declared republican protective tariff policy, or low wages and a poorer scale of living, or no wages, which will surely follow foreign competition under a declared democratic tariff policy.

A republican president and a republican Congress, elected in November, would be a guarantee to the people that there would be no free tariff disaster, no bread lines, no business failures, and none of the other tremendous economic ills that have invariably followed inauguration of a "tariff for revenue only" policy.

Our neighbor, Canada, is preparing to inaugurate a protective tariff policy much stronger than has heretofore prevailed in the dominion. A statement submitted recently to the Canadian Tariff Commission by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association declared that "Canada cannot relinquish her policy of protective tariff, but must build upon it with an aim to advance Canada toward her destiny as a fully developed nation". Even Mexico is preparing to establish a protective tariff to foster home industries.

One aftermath of the world war has been a general strengthening of tariff walls of all the leading nations. Every European country is protecting its labor, industry, and agriculture with stiff tariffs. The United States must do likewise or suffer exceedingly in competition with the manufacturers of these countries, which are conducted with cheap labor, living on a scale of wages that the American laboring man cannot exist upon under any circumstances.

Will Continue at St. Mary's Catholic Church Until Tuesday—Dates Back to 1534

PROGRAM FOR THREE DAYS

Forty Hours Devotion will begin Sunday and continue until Tuesday at St. Mary's Catholic church. This devotion, also called "Quarant Ore," dates back to the year 1534.

Having its origin at Milan, Italy, it very rapidly spread throughout all Europe. Although countless souls have enjoyed its privileges and blessings all down the ages, it was not until the year 1853 that the same came into usage in this country.

Bishop Neumann of Philadelphia was the first to introduce this devotion into his diocese. In 1858 the Archdiocese of Baltimore followed and in 1865 the Council of Baltimore formally approved it for all the dioceses of the states.

The devotion consists in continuous prayer by the faithful for forty hours before the Blessed Sacrament Exposed, in memory of the forty hours retention of the sacred body of Our Lord in the holy sepulcher.

The initiative is the Exposition Mass closely allied with private prayer and public devotions.

This is followed on the second day with the "Pro Pace Mass," and on the third day the Deposition mass, procession with the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction conclude the devotion.

HARVEST FESTIVAL TO BE HELD MONDAY

Salvation Army Announces Special Meeting at Which Brigadier G. F. Casler Will Speak

Y. P. SECRETARY TO ATTEND

The Salvation Army officers announce a special meeting for Monday evening, to be given in the church at the corner of Pearl and Water street.

Brigadier George F. Casler, divisional commander, and commandant Conlin, young people's secretary for Indiana, will be the special speakers. At 7:30 o'clock Brigadier Casler and Commandant Conlin will conduct the Salvation Army Harvest Festival program. This will be a very interesting meeting and one that comes only once a year, so a large attendance is expected.

At this meeting a quantity of farm products, including pumpkins, squash, potatoes, sweet potatoes, cabbage, apples, oats, corn, canned fruits, eggs and in fact everything that grows on the farm, will be displayed and sold at auction and the proceeds will be turned into the Salvation Army funds.

Brigadier Casler is recommended as an interesting speaker and Mr. Conlin is noted for his singing. The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting and hear the two officers.

Amusements

Kerrigan is Featured Tonight
"The Dream Cheater", a Robert Brunton production featuring J. Warren Kerrigan, showing today at the Princess Theatre, is an adaptation of Balzac's thrilling story "The Magic Skin," or "The Wild Ass' Skin".

This fascinating photodrama tells of the struggles of Kerrigan, as Brandon McShane, against superstition. He is presented with a magic skin, by which any wish of the owner may be obtained. But the penalty attached is, that with the fulfillment of each wish, his life is shortened. Superstition becomes a tormenting obsession as his life wanes.

Fritzi Brunette as Pauline, one of the sweetest and most inspiring characters ever produced on the silver-sheet, slowly convinces Brandon that he has been the victim of superstition.

LARGE DEMAND FOR CEMENT JUST NOW

More Than Usual Amount of Interest is Being Exhibited in Natural Resources of Indiana

STATE GEOLOGIST REPORTS

Raw Materials for Manufacture of Cement in State Are Unlimited and Inexhaustible

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—More than the usual amount of interest is being exhibited by industrial companies in the natural resources of Indiana, according to statements made in a report presented to the state department of conservation by Dr. W. N. Logan, state geologist. Among the materials concerning which inquiries have been made are cement materials, mineral paints, rock salt, fuller's earth, oil shales, coal refractory sands, brick clays and kaolin.

The demand for cement at the present times exceeds the supply, says Dr. Logan. Renewal of construction work held in abeyance during the period of the war, extensive road building programs, and transportation difficulties for certain materials, have each contributed to the increased demand.

The raw materials for the manufacture of cement in Indiana are unlimited and inexhaustible, according to the state geologist, but the essential combination of factors for plan location are more difficult to obtain. The essential requirements are abundant water supply, ready access to transportation, high aluminous clays or shales, and low magnesia in limestones.

Three cement companies have recently sought locations in Indiana. Two of these have secured tentative sites and are testing out the raw materials and checking up the engineering problems.

According to Dr. Logan, high silica refractory sands are being sought for foundry work. To meet the requirements such sands must be coarse, must be free from iron and other fluxing impurities, must be of high silica content, and must be accessible to established lines of transportation. Such sands may be found bordering the coal areas of Indiana on the east.

Fuller's earth is used in clarifying oil and fulling cloth.

The greater part of fuller's earth produced in the United States, comes from the southern states. Transportation difficulties render it desirable that the northern oil refineries find a supply nearer home. Suitable quantities of fuller's earth have not been located in Indiana. However, it is not at all improbable that such supplies may be found, in the opinion of Dr. Logan, who believes the most favorable territory for prospecting lies within the non-glaciated area of southern Indiana.

Red Cross Not National

People of America are prone to think of the Red Cross as a purely National organization. The American National Red Cross is one of the thirty-two societies which form the League of Red Cross Societies, with administrative headquarters at Geneva, Switzerland.

Early in 1917 the American Red Cross developed to its utmost strength throughout the country. The end of the war saw it facing needs for relief at home. This same situation confronted the other thirty-one Red Cross Societies throughout the world. Each nation through its Red Cross is endeavoring to better health conditions and lift the standards of living. To do this end the whole souled support of each nation's people is required. The Czecho-Slovakian Red Cross through a membership drive has just increased its number from 43,000 to over 200,000. The Polish Red Cross has had similar success.

The American Red Cross is already preparing for its enrollment of members in November for the fourth consecutive year. Red Cross membership drives are doubtless the best means of enabling a National Red Cross Society to carry out its vast and comprehensive peace-time program.

Building up a Red Cross means stimulating world progress; it means increasing the efforts to diminish the suffering of our day and to lighten the burdens of the world; it means another great step forward toward realizing the ideal of Florence Nightingale and Henry Dunant—a goal worth striving for with all our efforts.

A Dime's Worth of Oil

Ten cents worth of oil will often prevent ten dollars worth of rust. Yet many excellent people fail to give this fact even a passing thought.

Take a tour over this town.

You will find garden tools that have been discarded for the summer standing around in corners exposed to the weather. Lawn mowers will be resting on the grass in the morning dew or after a rain. Hatchets, hammers—even saws—may be found out of doors. Wheelbarrows, carts and other articles are the same.

Use ten cents worth of oil on them and put them under cover and they will be in prime condition for use when required. But leave them to the mercy of rust and the elements and soon they will become junk instead of tools.

Drive out onto the farms, and in many cases the same conditions will confront you.

Wagons, buggies, farm machinery—much of it delicate in mechanism and expensive in cost—is standing out in the yards or fields while sheds are empty.

Every day the parts are becoming weaker by the rapid accumulation of rust—going to decay through thoughtlessness and neglect.

Only a little oil and a little care!

With the advent of suffrage the henpecked husband should breathe a profound sigh. Women will be too busy settling the intricate problems of state to waste time on the minor affairs of life.

Our latest operatic stars are a twinkling success. You can't tell whether they are singing or having a fit of hysterics.

HOTELS PROMISE
NO RATE BOOST

Regular Prices Will Prevail in Indianapolis During Teachers Convention Week

STATE TEACHERS TO MEET

Public Schools in Rush County Will Likely be Closed on October 21

Rush county teachers who attend the meeting of the State Teachers' Association to be held in Indianapolis Thursday and Friday, Oct. 21-22 are assured that hotel rates will not be advanced. Regular prices will prevail during the convention week, it is stated. A number of local teachers who expect to attend the meeting have already made reservations.

The public schools in this city and throughout the county will likely close on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 20, for the remainder of the week so that the teachers may attend the convention. Teachers are allowed full compensation for attending the meeting. It is believed that practically every teacher in the county will be enrolled at the meeting.

The program for the convention is most of the strongest that has been arranged in recent years. Educators who have more than a national reputation will give addresses and other subjects related to educational work will be discussed.

A letter has been sent to the managers of the Indianapolis hotels by Elmer C. Jerman, chairman of the executive committee of the Indiana state teachers association in which he expects on behalf of the teachers appreciation of the association for the interest taken by the hotel managers in clearing up the question concerning hotel rates for the teachers at the next meeting of the state teachers association, which will open in Indianapolis on Thursday, October 21. Mr. Jerman has written letters to all of the city and county school superintendents in the state advising them that regular hotel rates will be charged the teachers and that arrangements will be made to provide ample accommodations in homes for the teachers. The matter was taken up with the hotel managers because of rates that have been received by some of the local teachers and which were regarded by the teachers as much too high.

Several railroads and traction lines will offer a reduced fare of one and one third for the round trip for the teachers, and it is expected that the local offices will receive word to that effect.

PRINCESS GOT CASH
FROM CANNY SCOTS

(By United Press)

Balmoral, (By Mail)—Princess Mary has been having a good time "spoofing" threepences out of canny Scots.

At a bazaar recently in aid of the funds of Crathie Church, Princess Mary and Prince George offered their services as booth-holders. Outside a booth was a notice:

"Swimming Match Within Admission 3d."

Princess Mary stood at the entrance of the booth and collected the threepences for admission. The "swimming match" was an ordinary wooden vesta blown hither and thither by Captain Ramsay, whose romantic marriage to Princess Patricia created so much stir, and the Rev. John Storton.

The exit from this booth led into another in charge of Prince George who also demanded threepence for his entertainment. This consisted of being allowed to sit on a chair belonging to the Queen, which played a tune when sat upon. Prince George himself brought this chair to the bazaar from Balmoral Castle.

Brother and sister got a great deal of fun competing as to who would take most money; and at the end of the day Princess Mary won.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother—Louisa E. Drake—who passed away from this world to her eternal home, Oct. 8, 1919.

One year has passed, but oh, how we miss you, Friends may think the wound is healed.

Little do they know the sorrow That lies in our hearts concealed. When the evening shades are falling And we're sitting all alone, In our hearts there comes a longing If she only could come home. Oft and oft our thoughts do wander To a grave not far away, Where they laid our darling Mother Just one year ago today. Neath' our eyes she faded slowly Growing day by day more frail. Bearing sweetly all her sufferings Without murmur, moan or wail. Heaven now retains our treasure, Earth the lonely casket keeps. But the sunbeams love to linger Around the grave where Mother sleeps.

Lots of times we think in silence. When no one doth see us weep, But many a silent tear is shed, When others are asleep. You toiled a rugged path By burdens sore distress. But the voice of Jesus said "Come unto Me and rest".

A loving Mother, true and kind, Faithful to the end of time. For us all you did your best, May God grant you eternal rest.

Sadly missed by Husband and Children. O. B. E. 178

RUSHVILLE OPENS SEASON WITH WIN

Varsity Defeats Arlington, 33 to 5, And Seconds Defeat Raleigh by Score of 29 to 9

BIG CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

Arlington Fails to Score Field Goal Until Last Half When Locals Use Substitutes

The Rushville high school basketball team opened the season last night with a big victory, when the Arlington team was let down by the score of 33 to 5. The second team from the local high school also started the season with a victory, by defeating the Raleigh team, 29 to 9.

Arlington players were good fighters, and never gave up even though the local team gained a lead from the very first and began to pile up the score. The first half ended with the score of 19 to 1, the visitors having failed to make a field goal.

In the last half the locals speeded up and played faster ball, completely sweeping the visitors off their feet. In this frame the locals used four substitutes, who comprised the second team last year.

For a long time during the second half Arlington had failed to register a field goal, but toward the end Birt, forward for the visitors, landed two in the net, which, together with a foul goal gave, them the five points.

The five regulars on the Rushville team played in better form than at any time last season, and indications now points to a winner from this city for this year. Lowell Headlee, forward, was not in the game on account of an injury, but his position was well handled by Tittsworth and in the first half and Phillips in the last half.

The crowd last night was the largest that ever attended the opening game here, and gave evidence of the fact that a great deal of interest will be taken in the local team this year, and the fans will boost for a winning so that the team can take part in the state tournament.

The summary:

Rushville (33)	Arlington (5)
Tittsworth	Rigsbee
Miller	Mitchell
E. Headlee	Birt
Eakin	Maey
Frazer	Marshall

Substitutions: (Rushville) Phillips for Tittsworth; Davis for Eakins; Kelley for Headlee; Sommerville for Frazer; field goals, Miller 3, Headlee 7, Eakin 3, Phillips, Birt 2; foul goal, Birt, 1 out of 2; Eakins, 4 out of 7; Miller. Referee Baldwin of Anderson.

AMERICAN STUDENTS ARRIVE IN BELGIUM

Scheme For Exchange of Students Under Hoover University Extension is Now Active

21 U. S. STUDENTS GO ABROAD

Brussels, (By Mail) —The scheme for the exchange of students under the Hoover University extension is now in active operation in Belgium.

Twenty-one American students, of whom five are women, have arrived in Belgium by the S. S. "Finland", to take up courses at the various Belgian universities. A like number of Belgian students who have completed their courses in the universities and technical colleges here have gone to various American universities at the expense of the foundation.

The party of Belgian students includes nine doctors of medicine, six engineers, and one doctress in physical and mathematical science. The fund has already made a number of grants to deserving Belgian students to enable them to pursue higher education.

CARTHAGE DEFEATS CENTER

The Carthage high school basketball team won from the Center high school last night at Carthage by the score of 17 to 6. Carthage overwhelmed their opponents from the beginning and when the first half ended the score was 10 to 1. In a curtain raiser two Carthage teams took part, in which the "Greens" won from the "Blues" by the score of 19 to 3. Carthage has an open date next week.

PRINCETON ALSO HAS BIG HOPES

University Football Squad Has Been Hard Hit But Coach Expects a Winner

NEEDS TWO GOOD ENDS

Sixty-five Candidates Have Reported and Elimination is Hard Task For The Coach

Princeton, N. J. Oct. 9.—The Princeton football team has been particularly hard hit by graduations and ineligibility, but Coach Bill Roper is confident of building a championship combination out of the wealth of new material.

As is the case with most big eastern eleven, Roper's hardest task is to develop a suitable pair of ends but, in addition, he must construct a backfield.

Although 12 letter men returned to school this fall few of them were regulars. Men must be developed to take the places of such stars as Strubing, Trimble, McGraw and Williams, who graduated. Holmes, Snively, Euwer and Lipscomb, all members of last year's freshman team, are not available either because of leaving school or being declared ineligible.

Out of the squad of 65 that reported for first practice the following appear to have the best chances of making the varsity:

Ends—Raymond Jones, Davis and Legendre. Tackles—Keck, Rutan, Hopper, Halsey and Upson. Guards—Thomas, Dickinson, Morgan and McDull. Center—Callahan, Opie and Scureman. Quarter—Lourie, Stimson and Gorman. Halts—Gilroy, Whittmer and Murrey. Full—Scheerer, Gilroy and Lourie.

Raymond was a varsity end last year. Davis also has had varsity experience. Jones was a freshman end in 1919 and Legendre formerly starred with Tulane.

"Stan" Keck was one of last year's stars, but was out of the game most of the time with injuries. He weighs 200 pounds, is a terrific line plunger and an accurate place-kicker. Rutan was on the freshman team last year. Hooper, Halsey and Upson played on last year's scrubs. Thomas was substitute center last year. Dickinson, Morgan and McCull have had varsity experience. The latter may have made a regular but for injuries.

Captain Mike Callahan will be understudied at center by Opie and Scureman. The latter was a sub-center when his leg was broken last year.

Lourie, who played in part of the Harvard game last fall, is a good open field runner and is sure on punts. Stimson and Gorman alternated at quarter on the freshman eleven.

Murrey, who kicked field goals against both Harvard and Yale last year, seems to be certain as a half back. Gilroy was full on the freshman team. Wittmer has had varsity experience.

Scheerer is one of the best punters in the game. He also is a good ground gainer, as evidenced by his performance against Yale last year. Gilroy and Lourie may also be tried out at full. Others who are showing well on the squad are Cleaves, Gordon and Cutchins.

Princeton opened with Swarthmore here last Saturday. The next game will be with Maryland State. Washington and Lee plays here Oct. 16 and the Navy on Oct. 23. West Virginia, which defeated Princeton 25 to 0 last year, comes Oct. 30. Colgate, which administered a 7 to 0 defeat to the Tiger last year, has been dropped from the schedule. The only out of town game is with Harvard and Cambridge. The teams tied 10 and 10 last year. Yale, which Princeton beat 13 to 6 last year, comes here Nov. 13.

The Yale game will produce the unique feature of brothers, captains of their respective elevens, facing each other at center. They are Mike, Callahan of Princeton and Tim Callahan of Yale. The latter, who was captain last year, was re-elected.

NEW SALEM WINS

The Clarksburg high school basketball team was defeated last evening by the New Salem team at New Salem by the score of 10 to 6. Preceding the game the members of the New Salem high school held a penny supper which was a decided success.

COAL, RELIEF, THOUGHT-NEAR

Fuel Supply Will be Ample, In Opinion of Eschbach

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—Relief from the coal shortage in Indiana was apparently near today in the opinion of Jesse Eschbach, chairman of the State Coal and Food Commission.

Fuel will be furnished not only to the retailers, Eschbach stated but 1,000 tons will be placed in the homes. This will be due to the efforts of the coal commission.

Eschbach estimated that 200 cars will be allotted to Indiana a day.

"The emergency in northern Indiana will be passed in two weeks," he said.

WHITE SWINE SALE ATTRACTS BUYERS

Horton and Son Hold Ninth Annual Event at Sales Barn Where 51 Head Are Sold

TOP SOW BRINGS $190

W. E. Horton and son's ninth annual Big Type White Swine sale was held last night at the Smalley Sales barn in East Second street, and buyers were present from many places, the total sales amounting to approximately $4,000, when 51 head of hogs were sold.

The top sow brought $190 and was purchased by D. C. Gambler of Greenville, O. The top boar was purchased by Jesse Darding of Williamsport, Ind., for $180. Two thirds of the buyers were from a distance. The general averages for the sows was $91 and the general average for all of the sales amounted to $80.

The prize boar of the herd was killed the day before the sale, when it ran into a fence and broke its neck. Mr. Horton was preparing to put the hog in a crate and bring it to the sale, when it became frightened. The loss was placed at $300, and was total. The sale was the second night sale of the week and was considered very satisfactory to Mr. Horton and his son Earl, who specialize in the breeding of Chester White hogs.

Preceding the sale last night Mr. Horton and his son entertained the visitors and local guests at a banquet at the K. of P. hall.

who expired suddenly about two months ago.

Carthage has an auto fire fighter, which pumps the water from cisterns located in the center of the street, and this machine was very effectively used, although for a time it looked as if the flames would spread to buildings across the street. No outside help was solicited.

Albert and John Johnson, owners of the building that was destroyed, have not made known any plans for the rebuilding, but being located on the public square, no doubt a modern structure will be erected.

Little Things Count On New Fall Gowns

By "MARJORIE"

(Written for United Press)

New York, Oct. 9.—Dame Fashion has taken to her rather fickle bosom the old maxim of "It is the little things that count." She has so put this axiom into practice that the dribbles of apparel are becoming like that tail which wagged the canine.

The old lady seems well content with her general platform of raglan-sleeved, dolman wraps; straight street dresses, princess evening gowns; soft, crushable hats, plaid pleated skirts and overblouses of satin. But being possessed of a disposition that can not "requisite in pace," she is now on the jump about trifles that can make two Siamese-twin gowns as unlike as the Presidential platforms.

Thus it is that the shops are full of additional embellishments that can more than double the original cost of any piece of raiment. For street dresses there are jewell novelties of grotesquely carved jade, amber, or coral. Gargoyles, grinning monkeys, fiery-fanged dragons, or lubberly alligators dangle from silken-cords or metallic chains and fleck with their color the blue or taupe tricotine or serge dress of Milady of Fashion. Then there are novel little girdles and belts fashioned from huge wooden beads, strips of particolored kid and visca, chenilles, insets of satin or metallic cloth, or even rare cameos and bits of matrix. Cretonne vestees and girdles are one of the latest trifle freaks. Tiny appliques of fur or oilcloth are spotted upon some of the dresses. Bandings of money and goat fur are copiously used.

For evening gowns there are elaborate head dresses of jet and coral, ruby red cameos and flame-colored satin, bandeaux of silver and gold leaves, flowers, and fruits, aigrettes, rhinestone-encrusted combs and pins and tiaras ranging from priceless gems to novel imitations.

Suits are touched up by vests or gilets of novel cut and color. Shades of rust and copper are in the lead at present and duvetyne is the most popular material. Most of these gilets are cut with a high choker collar. Tiny pearl, brass, or bead buttons adorn the front. The vests run the full length of the suit coat and some can be worn as blouses when the coat is removed. The most elaborate gilets are made of cloth of gold, satin and velvet, and are covered with intricate appliques. One house is showing a model made of copper colored velvet and covered with huge apples cut from black velvet. Another startling effect is given by black velvet encrusted with gold fruitage. Large and cubist patterns are mainly used upon the vests.

Sleeves seem to pique the interest of the fashion dame and she is giving many a sly quirk to the old standbys. The old leg-o-mutton sleeve peeks out from many a new frock, and the old fad for georgette or chiffon sleeves in a dress of another material is beginning to return. Some of the models compromise by using chiffon from the elbow to the wrist. Even coats show erratic sleeves. One of the latest freaks is entire fur sleeves in a fabric coat. Thus, a model of cochin brown duvetyne has sleeves of beaver and a green velvetyne has sleeves of gray squirrel.

For a Pain around the Heart after Eating.

PEPSINCO

Sometimes in front just under the heart, sometimes around under the left side, under the ribs behind the heart it's a sharp or acute pains; sometimes a dull heavy pain, leaving soreness. It's gas on the inside generated through gaseous foods, or, because of systematic inability to properly assimilate the food, this gas soon collecting, forms a lump that causes the pain. This is only one of a dozen different indications of indigestion which PEPISNCO immediately relieves. Keep PEPISNCO handy and take it the next time.

Ask your druggist—he sells and recommends Pepsinco.

WARNS PUBLIC OF RUTS AND BUMPS

Farmers Marketing Committee is Working to Eliminate Speculation in Foodstuffs

HITS GRAIN SPECULATION

To Buy Bread and Meat at High Price is Better Than Not to Buy Enough of Them

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The "Farmers' Marketing Committee of Seventeen," recently appointed by the American Farm Bureau federation, issued a statement last night warning the public of the ruts and bumps in the road that leads back to pre-war conditions. The committee is working to eliminate speculation in foodstuffs.

"With reference to the recent smash in the grain market," the statement says, "we desire to sound a note of profound warning lest in our zeal to 'get back to normal' we deliberately invite other-ills more serious than these from which we now suffer—for to buy bread and meat at a rather high price is better than not to be able to buy enough of them at any price.

"Contrary to the popular opinion in the cities, farmer did not, as a class make money out of the war period. On the contrary they actually lost money both in the production of grain and live stock. If any one doubts this statement, let him consult the income tax returns of the last several years. Therefore, the farmer was in no particularly happy frame of mind when the recent raids on the grain market began."

"Furthermore," continues the statement, "hundreds of country elevators are at this moment filled with wheat purchased on the high markets of a month or six weeks ago, and because of the car shortage it was impossible to get this wheat to market. It is no exaggeration to say that if the present price of wheat is maintained the working capital of many of these elevators will be swept completely away."

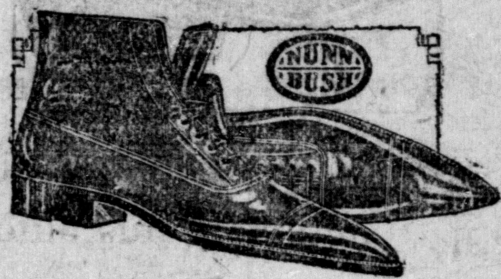

"Yet despite these distressing conditions an ex-president of the Chicago Board of Trade was quoted

by the press some days ago as having boasted that the various boards of trade deserved a great deal of credit for having brought down the high cost of living because they had forced down the price of grain. And to all such gentlemen we desire merely to say, 'You may be able to so manipulate your boards of trade, and thus force a loss running into millions against the wheat producers of the United States this year. But if the farmer is so hard hit financially that next year and the year thereafter he will be unable to keep food production up to the nation's requirements, and if thereby the cost of bread is forced much higher, the consuming public will realize that it trade off its birthright for a mess of pottage.'

The committee also refers to the statement recently made by Herbert Hoover that on the basis of the market price of wheat two weeks ago, the farmer only received 3 cents out of 12 cents which the consumer pays for a loaf of bread. "The public can draw its own conclusion as to whether or not the wheat grower is a profiteer," the statement said. The statement turns to the empty feed lots all over the country, and says the farmer is tired of producing hogs and cattle at a loss.

FREIGHT HITS FRONT END OF SCHOOL HACK

Clifford Ewbank Escapes Injury in Accident at Crossing Northeast
of Rushville

Clifford Ewbank, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ewbank, living northeast of Rushville, barely missed being seriously injured Friday afternoon about three o'clock when a fast Pennsylvania freight train hit the front end of the school hack he was driving at a crossing a short distance northeast of here.

The railroad angles northeast and southwest across the east and west road on which he was traveling. Young Ewbank, who drives a motor school hack for Rushville township, was going west to gather up the school children and return them to their homes. The view of the railroad from the northeast is obscured by a house and trees and the driver did not see the train until it was upon him.

The engine hit the right front wheel and shoved the hack to one side without doing any damage aside from crushing the wheel. The vehicle was not even upset.

CARAVAN TO MARION TO BE FORMED HERE

Robert Humes in Charge of Plans
For Pilgrimage to Sen. Harding's
Front Porch Oct. 18

APPEAL TO FIRST VOTERS

Joseph B. Rusk, of Crawfordsville, a representative of the republican national committee, was here yesterday afternoon to make arrangements for an automobile delegation to Marion, Ohio, for the "America First" celebration on Monday, October 18. Robert Humes was appointed chairman to arrange for the Rush county caravan and persons who wish to get details regarding the proposed trip are urged to call him at telephone No. 2316.

It is estimated that Indiana alone will be represented by more than two thousand automobiles the day of the pilgrimage to Senator Harding's front porch. A special appeal is being made to first voters to attend because Senator Harding's address will be especially for them. Governor Coolidge, candidate for vice-president, will also be present and speak.

It is expected practically every county in eastern Indiana will send a delegation and early reports indicate that many western Indiana counties will also be represented. Cass, Allen, Kosciusko and Montgomery counties are among the more remote ones which will send an auto caravan.

ALVA JONES SENT TO STATE PRISON

One of Four Arraigned on Criminal
Charges Today Draws Term
of 2 to 21 Years

SENTENCED ON GUILTY PLEA

Martin Clevenger Pleads Not Guilty
To Three Gaming Charges—William Brady Denies Guilt

The first thirty minutes of circuit court this morning was given over to the arraignment of four men who are held on criminal charges, two of which are of a serious nature and three charges against one man in connection with an alleged gambling deal a week ago tonight.

Alva Jones who lives in West Tenth street, entered a plea of guilty to a serious charge, and was sentenced to the State Prison at Michigan City for a term of years from 2 to 21.

Martin Clevenger was arraigned on three charges, one of gaming, one for conducting a gaming house and the third of inducing minors to gamble. He entered a plea of not guilty to each charge and his bond in the sum of $200 in each case was furnished by W. S. Oneal.

Clevenger's trial on the charge of keeping a gaming house was set for next Wednesday. Judge Sparks will submit the names of five capable judges for the defendant to strike off two and the state two, which will leave the other one to hear the case. Judge Sparks will be a witness in the case which disqualifies him to act as judge.

John M. Johnson, who lives in Ripley township, was arraigned on a grand jury indictment charging him with petit larceny and obtaining goods under false pretenses. He pleaded not guilty and Charles F. Whitton went on his bond in the sum of $500.

William Brady who was placed in jail Tuesday night on a serious charge, entered a plea of not guilty, and went back to jail upon default of $1,000 bond.

Jones, the first man mentioned, has been held in jail for several weeks, following an investigation by officers and the returning of a grand jury indictment. He gave his age as 42 years, and the girl over whom the charge is preferred is said to be 13 years old, and lives in Circleville. She is also the convicted man's sister-in-law.

Judge Sparks, in passing sentence on Jones told him that he was charged with a serious crime, but the statute did not give the court any jurisdiction in the matter other than to pass the required sentence. The statute prohibits leniency in the cases of murder, kidnapping and rape.

WOMEN NEARLY EQUAL THE MEN

Complete Figures on Two Registrations Show 5,733 Females to 5,920 Male Voters Registered

TOTAL IS SLIGHTLY LESS

Estimated Duplication Due to Voters
Moving Will Average About
Ten to The Precinct

Figures on the first and second registration of voters which have been compiled show that almost as many women as men are qualified to vote in the election November 2. The total went over eleven thousand, as the first registration indicated it would, 5,920 men and 5,733 women being qualified for voting. At the first registration the total of both men and women was 8,228 and at the second the total was 3,185.

This, of course, does not take into account duplications due to voters moving from one precinct to another after the first registration and registering at the October session of the board in the precinct in which they now live. It is estimated that this will average about ten to the precinct, which would reduce the above total about three hundred.

The men excelled the women in the first registration, 4,532, of them qualifying for the ballot, while only 3,908 women registered. An extra effort was made by both parties between the first and second registrations to get a large female vote, with the result that 1,825 women were registered at the October session as compared with 1,388 men.

The men and women registering in each precinct in the county and the total for each precinct is as follows:

$12,000 LOSS FROM FIRE AT CARTHAGE

Johnson Business Block on North-east Corner of Public Square
Burns Early Today

DISCOVERED AT 2:30 O'CLOCK

Maddy Grocery, Clark's 5 and 10
Cents Store, Doctor's Office and
Cream Station Destroyed

A fire swept through the business district of Carthage this morning about 2:30 o'clock, and before the blaze could be checked, $12,000 damage had resulted and two stores, an office and a cream station had been completely wiped out.

The grocery store owned by W. H. Maddy, Clark's Five and Ten Cents Store, the physician's office of Dr. W. C. Vandament and a cream receiving station, were all destroyed at a total loss, as well as the frame building, in which they were located. The building was owned by Albert and John Johnson.

The fire originated some place in the frame building containing the four stores, and was not discovered until the building was a mass of flames. The business block was located on the northeast corner of the public square, running north in Main street.

All that saved the remainder of the surrounding stores from burning was due to the fact that on all three remaining corners the buildings were of brick structure.

When first discovered about 2:30 this morning, the alarm was quickly spread and volunteers gave their assistance, but the flames were so intense that they could not be subdued, and attention was paid to saving the surrounding buildings.

At the north end of the frame structure was a brick building, housing the department store of F. D. Yankner. The brick building kept this store from being seriously damaged, other than stock which was damaged from smoke and water. Mr. Yankner's loss will be covered by insurance.

Mr. Maddy's loss is also said to be one-half covered with insurance, as the grocery stock was a total loss. Clark's Five and Ten Cent store is said to have been fully recovered with insurance, as their loss was also total, as was the two offices of the cream station and Dr. Vandament.

The office of the physician was formerly the office of Dr. J. A. Sipe. Continued on Page Six

TARIFF ISSUE IS IMPORTANT

Little Attention is Paid so Far in The Campaign to The Foreign Trade Enterprise

Republicans Favor Protective Tariff While Democrats Are For Free Trade

Washington, Oct. 9.—Little attention seems to be paid so far in this political campaign to the tariff question. Every student of American history and economics knows that upon the tariff, one way or the other, depends in a great measure the prosperity of the United States and the welfare and happiness of the people.

It is a basic proposition, which cannot be disputed, that this country has proposed exceedingly under high or protective tariff systems, during republican administrations, and has correspondingly failed to propose with free trade or a "tariff for revenue only" under democratic administrations.

The democratic party is committed in this campaign to a low tariff policy. Its platform says: "We reaffirm the traditional policy of the democratic party in favor of a tariff for revenue only." The democratic party in stating this platform, is committed to Congress, demanding: "The removal, as far as possible, of all economic barriers and the establishment of an equality of trade conditions among all nations consenting to the peace and associating themselves for its maintenance." The President there declared, openly and without disguise, for a free trade policy—a kind of soviet world trade arrangement. It was a positive declaration by the President that the United States, in its treaty of peace must guarantee to Europe free trade with the United States without any tariff safeguards whatever to protect the American business man, manufacturer, farmer and laborer from foreign competition in home markets.

No one can deny if the tariff bars are completely swept away, when peace is finally signed, that the European nations with their cheaper labor, will be able to completely dominate markets for many manufactured goods in the United States that are now supplied by American manufacturers. American products would be driven out of the home markets and American manufacturers put out of business, with unemployment to American labor following.

The American manufacturer, with the higher wages he pays to American labor than is paid in European countries, cannot compete with European products if the products are admitted duty free, as President Wilson wants them admitted, or with a small tariff for "revenue only." The same conditions would prevail concerning the competition of all other nations of the world, particularly Japan, because in Japan labor is the poorest paid in the world.

So well do the people of the United States understand the tariff question that the republican party has never been defeated on a tariff issue when it presented that issue squarely to the electorate.

Free trade, absolute and complete, or a low tariff, with all its tremendous economic ills, looms for the next four years, if the democrats win in November.

The National republican platform says: "The republican party reaffirms its belief in the protective principle, and pledges itself to a revision of the tariff as soon as conditions shall make it necessary for the preservation of the home market for American labor, agriculture and industry."

The issue is clear cut between the two parties on this question. The voter must choose in November whether he wants prosperity in a declared republican protective tariff policy, or low wages, and a poorer scale of living, or no wages, which will surely follow foreign competition under a declared democratic tariff policy.

A republican president and a republican Congress, elected in November, would be a guarantee to the people that there would be no free tariff disaster, no bread lines, no business failures, and none of the other tremendous economic ills that have invariably followed inauguration of a "tariff for revenue only" policy.

Our neighbor, Canada, is preparing to inaugurate a protective tariff policy much stronger than has heretofore prevailed in the dominion. A statement submitted recently to the Canadian Tariff Commission by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association declared that "Canada cannot relinquish her policy of protective tariff, but must build upon it with an aim to advance Canada toward her destiny as a fully developed nation." Even Mexico is preparing to establish a protective tariff to foster home industries.

One aftermath of the world war has been a general strengthening of tariff walls of all the leading nations. Every European country is protecting its labor, industry, and agriculture with stiff tariffs. The United States must do likewise or suffer exceedingly in competition with the manufacturers of these countries, which are conducted with cheap labor, living on a scale of wages that the American laboring man cannot exist upon under any circumstances.

STAGE STAR TALKS TONIGHT

Lillian Russell Speaking on G. O. P. Stump in Indianapolis

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—Mrs. Alexander Moore, of Philadelphia known on the stage as Lillian Russell, will speak here tonight in the interest of the Harding-Coolidge Ticket. Mrs. Moore spoke last night in Chicago. From Indianapolis she will go to St. Louis where she speaks October 11.

Mrs. Moore, who has just completed a stumping tour of her home state, and has kept in close touch with political conditions over the country generally, declares that the people are impatiently awaiting an opportunity to vote out the present administration and that their verdict at the polls in November will be for a complete change at Washington.

The public is greatly impressed with Senator Harding's stand on the issues of the campaign, she said and his popularity is daily growing to greater proportions.

Publishers Warned

New York, Oct. 9.—Publishers were warned by Jason Rogers, publisher of the New York Globe, not to sign contracts for print paper at any price over 7½ cents a pound. Rogers issued a statement today declaring the paper market had collapsed and speculators will now be forced to sacrifice their profits.

TONSILS ARE REMOVED

Eugene, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wiley of Union township, underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils and adenoids at Dr. F. H. Green's hospital yesterday. He is improving nicely.

LEGION TO MAKE DRIVE

Indiana Posts Are Planning on Big Membership Campaign

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—Local posts of the American Legion throughout Indiana are completing plans for membership drives. The South Bend post is preparing to go after enough new members to bring the total membership of the post to 5,000. Plans will be made within the next month or two for a state-wide membership drive to be conducted about the first of the year. There are now 40,000 Legionnaires in Indiana.

L. Russell Newgent, department adjutant, has announced that dues from now until December 31, 1921 will be but $1.75. Of this amount, $1.25 will go to national headquarters and the Legion Weekly, and 50 cents to the state headquarters. Beginning January 2 the dues for the year will be $1.50, of which $1.00 will be for national headquarters and the Weekly, and 50 cents for state headquarters.

Prepare For Changeable Weather

Many expensive doctor's bills are saved by prompt action with reliable family remedies. Foley's Honey and Tar has been successfully used in thousands of homes in cases of coughs, colds, croup, hay fever and asthma. H. B. Miller, R. F. D. 10, Wooster, O., writes: "By the changing of beds and the weather, I took a very bad cold and sore throat. Four doses of Foley's Honey and Tar put me right in a day's time. I never took any medicine that gave such splendid results." It pays to get the genuine, Foley's. Contains no opiates. F. B. Johnson (Advt.) 7

40 HOURS DEVOTION WILL BEGIN SUNDAY

Will Continue at St. Mary's Catholic Church Until Tuesday—Dates Back to 1534

PROGRAM FOR THREE DAYS

Forty Hours Devotion will begin Sunday and continue until Tuesday at St. Mary's Catholic church. This devotion, also called "Quarant Ore," dates back to the year 1534.

Having its origin at Milan, Italy, it very rapidly spread throughout all Europe. Although countless souls have enjoyed its privileges and blessings all down the ages, it was not until the year 1853 that the same came into usage in this country.

Bishop Neumann of Philadelphia was the first to introduce this devotion into his diocese. In 1858 the Archdiocese of Baltimore followed and in 1865 the Council of Baltimore formally approved it for all the dioceses of the states.

The devotion consists in continuous prayer by the faithful, for forty hours, before the Blessed Sacrament Exposed, in memory of the forty hours retention of the sacred body of Our Lord in the holy sepulcher.

The initiative is the Exposition Mass closely allied with private prayer and public devotions.

This is followed on the second day with the "Pro Pace Mass," and on the third day the Deposition mass, procession with the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction conclude the devotion.

LARGE DEMAND FOR CEMENT JUST NOW

More Than Usual Amount of Interest is Being Exhibited in Natural Resources of Indiana

Raw Materials For Manufacture of Cement in State Are Unlimited and Inexhaustible

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—More than the usual amount of interest is being exhibited by industrial companies in the natural resources of Indiana, according to statements made in a report presented to the state department of conservation by Dr. W. N. Logan, state geologist. Among the materials concerning which inquiries have been made are cement materials, mineral paints, rock salt, fuller's earth, oil shales, coal refractory sands, brick clays and kaolin.

The demand for cement at the present times exceeds the supply, says Dr. Logan. Renewal of construction work held in abeyance during the period of the war, extensive road building programs, and transportation difficulties for certain materials, have each contributed to the increased demand.

The raw materials for the manufacture of cement in Indiana are unlimited and inexhaustible, according to the state geologist, but the essential combination of factors for plan location are more difficult to obtain. The essential requirements are abundant water supply, ready access to transportation, high aluminous clays or shales, and low magnesia in limestones.

Three cement companies have recently sought locations in Indiana. Two of these have secured tentative sites and are testing out the raw materials and checking up the engineering problems.

According to Dr. Logan, high silica refractory sands are being sought for foundry work. To meet the requirements such sands must be coarse, must be free from iron and other fluxing impurities, must be of high silica content, and must be accessible to established lines of transportation. Such sands may be found bordering the coal areas of Indiana on the east.

Fuller's earth is used in clarifying oil and fulling cloth.

The greater part of fuller's earth produced in the United States comes from the southern states. Transportation difficulties render it desirable that the northern oil refineries find a supply nearer home. Suitable quantities of fuller's earth have not been located in Indiana. However, it is not at all improbable that such supplies may be found, in the opinion of Dr. Logan, who believes the most favorable territory for prospecting lies within the non-glaciated area of southern Indiana.

Kerrigan is Featured Tonight

"The Dream Cheater", a Robert Brunton production featuring J. Warren Kerrigan, showing today at the Princess Theatre, is an adaptation of Balzac's thrilling story "The Magic Skin," or "The Wild Ass' Skin".

This fascinating photodrama tells of the struggles of Kerrigan, as Brandon McShane, against superstition. He is presented with a magic skin, by which any wish of the owner may be obtained. But the penalty attached is, that with the fulfillment of each wish, his life is shortened. Superstition becomes a tormenting obsession as his life wanes.

Fritzi Brunette as Pauline, one of the sweetest and most inspiring characters ever produced on the silver-sheet, slowly convinces Brandon that he has been the victim of superstition.

Red Cross Not National

People of America are prone to think of the Red Cross as a purely National organization. The American National Red Cross is one of the thirty-two societies which form

the League of Red Cross Societies, with administrative headquarters at Geneva, Switzerland.

Early in 1917 the American Red Cross developed to its utmost strength throughout the country.

The end of the war saw it facing needs for relief at home. This same situation confronted the other thirty-one Red Cross Societies throughout the world. Each nation through its Red Cross is endeavoring to better health conditions and lift the standards of living. To do this end the whole souled support of each nation's people is required. The

Czecho-Slovakian Red Cross

through a membership drive has just increased its number from 43,-

000 to over 200,000. The Polish Red Cross has had similar success.

The American Red Cross is already preparing for its enrollment of members in November for the fourth consecutive year. Red Cross membership drives are doubtless the best means of enabling a National

Red Cross Society to carry out its vast and comprehensive peace-time program.

Building up a Red Cross means stimulating world progress; it means increasing the efforts to diminish the suffering of our day and to lighten the burdens of the world;

it means another great step forward toward realizing the ideal of Florence Nightingale and Henry Dunant

—a goal worth striving for with all our efforts.

A Dime's Worth of Oil

Ten cents worth of oil will often prevent ten dollars worth of rust.

Yet many excellent people fail to thought.

Take a tour over this town.

You will find garden tools that have been discarded for the summer standing around in corners exposed to the weather. Lawn mowers will be resting on the grass in the morning dew or after a rain.

Hatchets, hammers—even saws—may be found out of doors. Wheel-borros, carts and other articles are the same.

Use ten cents worth of oil on them and put them under cover and they will be in prime condition for use when required. But leave them to the mercy of rust and the elements and soon they will become junk instead of tools.

Drive out onto the farms, and in many cases the same conditions will confront you.

Wagons, buggies, farm machinery

—much of it delicate in mechanism and expensive in cost—is standing out in the yards or fields while sheds are empty.

Every day the parts are becoming weaker by the rapid accumulation of rust—going to decay through thoughtlessness and neglect.

Only a little oil and a little care!

With the advent of suffrage the henpecked husband should breathe

a profound sigh. Women will be too busy settling the intricate problems of state to waste time on the minor affairs of life.

Our latest operative stars are a twinkling success. You can't tell whether they are singing or having a fit of hysterics.

luck. They are forced to pay exorbitant prices for gas, and get no

HOTELS PROMISE

STATE TEACHERS TO MEET

Public Schools in Rush County Will Likely be Closed on October 21

Rush county teachers who attend the meeting of the State Teachers'

Association to be held in Indianapolis Thursday and Friday, Oct. 21-22 are assured that hotel rates will not be advanced. Regular prices will prevail during the convention week, it is stated. A number of local teachers, who expect to attend the meeting have already made reservations.

The public schools in this city and throughout the county will likely close on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 20, for the remainder of the week so that the teachers may attend the convention. Teachers are allowed full compensation for attending the meeting. It is believed that practically every teacher in the county will be enrolled at the meeting.

The program for the convention is most of the strongest that has been arranged in recent years. Educators who have more than a national reputation will give addresses and other subjects related to educational work will be discussed.

A letter has been sent to the managers of the Indianapolis hotels, by Elmer C. Jerman, chairman of the executive committee of the Indiana state teachers association in which he expects on behalf of the teachers appreciation of the association for the interest taken by the hotel managers in clearing up the question concerning hotel rates for the teachers at the next meeting of the state teachers association, which will open in Indianapolis on Thursday, October 21. Mr. Jerman has written letters to all of the city and county school superintendents in the state advising them that regular hotel rates will be charged the teachers and that arrangements will be made to provide ample accommodations in homes for the teachers. The matter was taken up with the hotel managers because of rates that have been received by some of the local teachers and which were regarded by the teachers as much too high.

Several railroads and traction lines will offer a reduced fare of one and one third for the round trip for the teachers, and it is expected that the local offices will receive word to that effect.

PRINCESS GOT CASH
FROM CANNY SCOTS

(By United Press)

Balmoral, (By Mail)—Princess

Mary has been having a good time

"spoofing" threepences out of can-ny Scots.

At a bazaar recently in aid of the funds of Craikie Church, Princess

Mary and Prince George offered their services as booth-holders. Outside a booth was a notice:

"Swimming Match Within

Admission 3d."

Princess Mary stood at the entrance of the booth and collected the threepences for admission. The "swimming match" was an ordinary wooden "vesta" blown rather and thither by Captain Ramsay, whose romantic marriage to Princess Pat created so much stir, and the Rev.

John Sturton.

The exit from this booth led into another in charge of Prince George who also demanded threepence for his entertainment. This consisted of being allowed to sit on a chair belonging to the Queen, which played a tune when sat upon. Prince George himself brought this chair to the bazaar from Balmoral Castle.

Brother and sister got a great deal of fun competing as to who would take most money; and at the end of the day Princess Mary won.

RUSHVILLE OPENS SEASON WITH WIN

Varsity Defeats Arlington, 33 to 5, And Seconds Defeat Raleigh by Score of 29 to 9

BIG CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

Arlington Fails to Score Field Goal Until Last Half When Locals Use Substitutes

The Rushville high school basketball team opened the season last night with a big victory, when the Arlington team was let down by the score of 33 to 5. The second team from the local high school also started the season with a victory, by defeating the Raleigh team, 29 to 9.

Arlington players were good fighters, and never gave up even though the local team gained a lead from the very first and began to pile up the score. The first half ended with the score of 19 to 1, the visitors having failed to make a field goal.

In the last half the locals speeded up and played faster ball, completely sweeping the visitors off their feet. In this frame the locals used four substitutes, who comprised the second team last year.

For a long time during the second half Arlington had failed to register a field goal, but toward the end Birt, forward for the visitors, landed two in the net, which, together with a foul goal gave them the five points.

The five regulars on the Rushville team played in better form than at any time last season, and indications now point to a winner from this city for this year. Lowell Headlee, forward, was not in the game on account of an injury, but his position was well handled by Tittsworth and in the first half and Phillips in the last half.

The crowd last night was the largest that ever attended the opening game here, and gave evidence of the fact that a great deal of interest will be taken in the local team this year, and the fans will boost for a winning so that the team can take part in the state tournament.

The summary:

Rushville (33) Arlington (5)
Tittsworth F Rigsbee
Miller F Mitchell
E. Headlee C Birt
Eakin G Macy
Frazee G Marshall

Substitutions: (Rushville) Phillips for Tittsworth; Davis for Eakin; Kelley for Headlee; Sommerville for Frazee; field goals, Miller 3, Headlee 7, Eakin 3, Phillips, Birt 2; foul goal, Birt, 1 out of 2; Eakin, 4 out of 7; Miller, Referee Baldwin of Anderson.

AMERICAN STUDENTS ARRIVE IN BELGIUM

21 U. S. STUDENTS GO ABROAD

Brussels, (By Mail)—The scheme for the exchange of students under the Hoover University extension is now in active operation in Belgium. Twenty-one American students, of whom five are women, have arrived in Belgium by the S. S. "Finland", to take up courses at the various Belgian universities. A like number of Belgian students who have completed their courses in the universities and technical colleges here have gone to various American universities at the expense of the foundation.

The party of Belgian students includes nine doctors of medicine, six engineers, and one doctress in physical and mathematical science. The fund has already made a number of grants to deserving Belgian students to enable them to pursue higher education.

CARTHAGE DEFEATS CENTER

The Carthage high school basketball team won from the Center high school last night at Carthage by the score of 17 to 6. Carthage overwhelmed their opponents from the beginning and when the first half ended the score was 10 to 1. In a curtain raiser two Carthage teams took part, in which the "Greens" won from the "Blues" by the score of 19 to 3. Carthage has an open date next week.

PRINCETON ALSO HAS BIG HOPES

University Football Squad Has Been Hard Hit But Coach Expects a Winner

NEEDS TWO GOOD ENDS

Sixty-five Candidates Have Reported and Elimination is Hard Task For The Coach

Princeton, N. J. Oct. 9—The Princeton football team has been particularly hard hit by graduations and ineligibility, but Coach Bill Roper is confident of building a championship combination out of the wealth of new material.

As is the case with most big eastern eleven, Roper's hardest task is to develop a suitable pair of ends but, in addition, he must construct a backfield.

Although 12 letter men returned to school this fall few of them were regulars. Men must be developed to take the places of such stars as Strubing, Trimble, McGraw and Williams, who graduated. Holmes, Snively, Entwur and Lipscomb, all members of last year's freshman team, are not available either because of leaving school or being declared ineligible.

Out of the squad of 65 that reported for first practice the following appear to have the best chances of making the varsity:

Ends—Raymond Jones, Davis and Legendre. Tackles—Keck, Rutan, Hopper, Halsey and Upson. Guards—Thomas, Dickinson, Morgan and McDull. Center—Callahan, Opie and Seureman. Quarter—Lourie, Stimson and Gorman. Halves—Gilroy, Whittmer and Murrey. Full—Scheerer, Gilroy and Lourie.

Raymond was a varsity end last year. Davis also has had varsity experience. Jones was a freshman end in 1919 and Legendre formerly starred with Tulane.

"Stan" Keck was one of last year's stars, but was out of the game most of the time with injuries. He weighs 200 pounds, is a terrific line plunger and an accurate place-kicker. Rutan was on the freshman team last year. Hooper, Halsey and Upson played on last year's scrubs. Thomas was substitute center last year. Dickinson, Morgan and McCaul have had varsity experience. The latter may have made a regular but for injuries.

Captain Mike Callahan will be understudied at center by Opie and Seureman. The latter was a sub-center when his leg was broken last year.

Lourie, who played in part of the Harvard game last fall, is a good open field runner and is sure on punts. Stimson and Gorman alternated at quarter on the freshman eleven.

Murrey, who kicked field goals against both Harvard and Yale last year, seems to be certain as a half back. Gilroy was full on the freshman team. Whittmer has had varsity experience.

Scheerer is one of the best punters in the game. He also is a good ground gainer, as evidenced by his performance against Yale last year. Gilroy and Lourie may also be tried out at full. Others who are showing well on the squad are Cleaves, Gordon and Cutchins.

Princeton opened with Swarthmore here last Saturday. The next game will be with Maryland State, Washington and Lee plays here Oct. 16 and the Navy on Oct. 23. West Virginia, which defeated Princeton 25 to 0 last year, comes Oct. 30. Colgate, which administered a 7 to 0 defeat to the "Tiger" last year, has been dropped from the schedule. The only out of town game is with Harvard and Cambridge. The teams tied 10 and 10 last year. Yale, which Princeton beat 13 to 6 last year, comes here Nov. 13.

The Yale game will produce the unique feature of brothers, captains of their respective elevens, facing each other at center. They are Mike, Callahan of Princeton and Tim Callahan of Yale. The latter, who was captain last year, was re-elected.

Dean, Mrs. Raymond Hargrove, Mrs. Walter Norris, Mrs. Edith Norris, Miss Alice Norris and Mrs. Charlotte Norris. Following the luncheon the afternoon was enjoyed with an informal social party, during which Miss Charlotte Norris rendered several beautiful vocal selections.

The banquet given last evening at the New Windsor hotel by the Daughters and Sons of the American Revolution was a decided success. This was the first meeting of the year's program. At 7:30 the meeting was opened by singing "America," with the Victrola accompaniment. A delicious three-course fried chicken dinner which was planned by the entertainment committee, was served to the one hundred guests present. Following the dinner a very interesting program was arranged by the regent and secretary of the chapter.

Mrs. D. D. VanOsdol, the regent, presided during the program. There were several toasts given by members of the two chapters. They were given as follows: Our Chapter, "Sons of the American Revolution," Earl Payne; Our Chapter, "Daughters of the American Revolution," Mrs. Martha Grindle; "The Flag," John A. Tisworth; "Fellowship," Lincoln Gary. Sergeant Jack Gardner, with a recruiting party here, gave a short entertainment of jokes and popular songs. The meeting was closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

By No Means Time Wasted. Jud Tunkins wishes to explain that he was not wasting precious time when he was sitting on the fence whittling. What he was cutting up was the family outia board.

WHITE SWINE SALE ATTRACTS BUYERS

Horton and Son Hold Ninth Annual Event at Sales Barn Where 51 Head Are Sold

TOP SOW BRINGS $190

W. E. Horton and son's ninth annual Big Type White Swine sale was held last night at the Smalley Sales barn in East Second street, and buyers were present from many places, the total sales amounting to approximately $4,000, when 51 head of hogs were sold.

The top sow brought $190 and was purchased by D. C. Gambler of Greenville, O. The top boar was purchased by Jesse Darding of Williamsport, Ind., for $180. Two thirds of the buyers were from a distance. The general averages for the sows was $91 and the general average for all of the sales amounted to $80.

The prize boar of the herd was killed the day before the sale, when it ran into a fence and broke its neck. Mr. Horton was preparing to put the hog in a crate and bring it to the sale, when it became frightened. The loss was placed at $300, and was total. The sale was the second night sale of the week and was considered very satisfactory to Mr. Horton and his son Earl, who specialize in the breeding of Chester White hogs.

Preceding the sale last night Mr. Horton and his son entertained the visitors and local guests at a banquet at the K. of P. hall.

Carthage has an auto fire fighter, which pumps the water from cisterns located in the center of the street, and this machine was very effectively used, although for a time it looked as if the flames would spread to buildings across the street. No outside help was solicited.

Albert and John Johnson, owners of the building that was destroyed, have not made known any plans for the rebuilding, but being located on the public square, no doubt a modern structure will be erected.

ALVA JONES SENT TO STATE PRISON

Little Things Count On New Fall Gowns

By "MARJORIE" (Written for United Press)

New York, Oct. 9.—Dame Fashion has taken to her rather fickle bosom the old maxim of "It is the little things that count." She has so put this axiom into practice that the dribbles of apparel are becoming like that tail which wagged the canine.

The old lady seems well content with her general platform of raglan-sleeved, dolman wraps; straight street dresses, princess evening gowns; soft, crushable hats, plaid pleated skirts and overblouses of satin. But being possessed of a disposition that can not "requisite in pace," she is now on the jump about trifles that can make two Siamese-twin gowns as unlike as the Presidential platforms.

Thus it is that the shops are full of additional embellishments, that can more than double the original cost of any piece of raiment. For street dresses there are jewell novelties of grotesquely carved jade, amber, or coral. Gargoyles, grinning monkeys, fiery-fanged dragons, or lubberly alligators dangle from silken cords or metallic chains and fleck with their color the blue or taupe tricotine, or serge dress of Milady of Fashion. Then there are novel little girdles and belts fashioned from huge, wooden beads, strips of parti-colored kid and visca, chenilles, insets of satin or metallic cloth, or even rare cameos and bits of matrix. Cretonne vestees and girdles are one of the latest trifle freaks. Tiny appliques of fur or oilcloth are splashed upon some of the dresses. Bandings of money and goat fur are copiously used.

For evening gowns there are elaborate head dresses of jet and coral, ruby red cameos and flame-colored satin, bandeaux of silver and gold leaves, flowers, and fruits, aigrettes, rhinestone-encrusted combs and pins and tiaras ranging from priceless gems to novel imitations.

Suits are touched up by vests or gilets of novel cut and color. Shades of rust and copper are in the lead at present and duvetyne is the most popular material. Most of these gilets are cut with a high choker collar. Tiny pearl, brass, or bead buttons adorn the front. The vests run the full length of the suit coat and some can be worn as blouses when the coat is removed. The most elaborate gilets are made of cloth of gold, satin and velvet, and are covered with intricate appliques. One house is showing a model made of copper colored velvet and covered with huge apples cut from black velvet. Another startling effect is given by black velvet encrusted with gold fruitage. Large and cubist patterns are mainly used upon the vests.

Sleeves seem to pique the interest of the fashion dame and she is giving many a sly quirk to the old standbys. The old leg-o-mutton sleeve peeks out from many a new frock, and the old fad for georgette or chiffon sleeves in a dress of another material is beginning to return. Some of the models compromise by using chiffon from the elbow to the wrist. Even coats show erratic sleeves. One of the latest freaks is entire fur sleeves in a fabric coat. Thus, a model of cochin brown duvetyne has sleeves of beaver and a green velvetyne has sleeves of gray squirrel.

PEPSINCO

Sometimes in front just under the heart, sometimes around under the left side, under the ribs behind the heart it's a sharp or acute pain; sometimes a dull heavy pain, leaving soreness. It's gas on the inside generated through gaseous foods, or because of systematic inability to properly assimilate the food, this gas soon collecting, forms a lump that causes the pain. This is only one of a dozen different indications which PEPSINCO immediately relieves. Keep PEPSINCO handy and take it the next time.

WARNS PUBLIC OF RUTS AND BUMPS

Farmers Marketing Committee is Working to Eliminate Speculation in Foodstuffs

HITS GRAIN SPECULATION

To Buy Bread and Meat at High Price is Better Than Not to Buy Enough of Them

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The "Farmers' Marketing Committee of Seven," recently appointed by the American Farm Bureau federation, issued a statement last night warning the public of the ruts and bumps in the road that leads back to pre-war conditions. The committee is working to eliminate speculation in foodstuffs.

"With reference to the recent smash in the grain market," the statement says, "we desire to sound a note of profound warning lest in our zeal to 'get back to normal' we deliberately invite other-ills more serious than these from which we now suffer—for to buy bread and meat at a rather high price is better than not to be able to buy enough of them at any price."

"Contrary to the popular opinion in the cities, farmer did not, as a class make money out of the war period. On the contrary they actually lost money both in the production of grain and live stock. If any one doubts this statement, let him consult the income tax returns of the last several years. Therefore, the farmer was in no particularly happy frame of mind when the recent raids on the grain market began."

"Furthermore," continues the statement, "hundreds of country elevators are at this moment filled with wheat purchased on the high markets of a month or six weeks ago, and because of the ear shortage it was impossible to get this wheat to market. It is no exaggeration to say that if the present price of wheat is maintained the working capital of many of these elevators will be swept completely away."

"Yet despite these distressing conditions an ex-president of the Chicago Board of Trade was quoted

by the press some days ago as having boasted that the various boards of trade deserved a great deal of credit for having brought down the high cost of living because they had forced down the price of grain. And to all such gentlemen we desire merely to say, 'You may be able to so manipulate your boards of trade, and thus force a loss running into millions against the wheat producers of the United States this year. But if the farmer is so hard hit financially that next year and the year thereafter he will be unable to keep food production up to the nation's requirements, and if thereby the cost of bread is forced much higher, the consuming public will realize that it traded off its birthright for a mess of pottage.'

The committee also refers to the statement recently made by Herbert Hoover that, on the basis of the market price of wheat two weeks ago, the farmer only received 3 cents out of 12 cents which the consumer pays for a loaf of bread. "The public can draw its own conclusion as to whether or not the wheat grower is a profiteer," the statement said. The statement turns to the empty feed lots all over the country, and says the farmer is tired of producing hogs and cattle at a loss.
